EARNED INCOME TAX (Current & Delinquent)

State law requires Pennsylvania residents with earned income, wages and/or net profits, to file an annual local earned income tax return and supply income and withholding documentation, such as a W-2. Even if you have employer withholding or are not expecting a refund, you must file an annual tax return.

If you are a Wage Earner/Salaried Employee

Pennsylvania employers are required by law to withhold earned income tax from employees' pay. Your employer must obtain and report certain information about your residence and your PA work location and withhold the correct amount of earned income tax.

Online filing is available at efile.KeystoneCollects.com

If you are Self-Employed or Employed Outside of PA

If you are self-employed, have earnings reported on Form 1099, or work outside of PA and your employer does not withhold your earned income tax, you must report your income and pay your tax quarterly.

LOCAL SERVICES TAX (Current & Delinquent)

Local Services Tax (LST) is imposed where the employee works, regardless of where the employee lives. The tax is assessed during each payroll period and is withheld proportionately for the number of payroll periods within the calendar year. Pennsylvania law requires employers to withhold and report employee LST. Quarterly payroll withholding and payment is due within 30 days after the close of the calendar quarter. First quarter payment is due to the Tax Officer on or before April 30.

Business payments can be remitted online at business.KeystoneCollects.com

Individuals remitting LST should access the Local Services Tax form

PER CAPITA (Current)

Per capita tax is a fixed amount charged annually to each resident over 18 years of age residing within the taxing jurisdiction.

Payments can be made at pay.keystonecollects.com

PER CAPITA (Delinquent)

Taxpayers who failed to remit payment are notified of their delinquent tax and instructed on how to remit payment.

Payments can be made at pay.keystonecollects.com

BUSINESS PRIVILEGE / MERCANTILE TAX (Current & Delinquent)

Business privilege and mercantile taxes are levied by the municipality and/or school district in which a business is located and are either flat rate or more typically based on the gross receipts of such a business.

The tax may be imposed on each dollar of gross annual receipts for a business within the taxing district, whether for gain or profit including financial businesses, professions, vocations, services, construction, or other commercial activities.

Access Keystone Collections Group Business Privilege Forms and search for our area to locate the required form and due dates.

REAL ESTATE TAX (Delinquent)

We have partnered with Keystone Collections Group for collection of delinquent real estate taxes. Payments not received by the current tax collector by December 31 are turned over to Keystone as delinquent.

After receipt of our delinquent tax roll, Keystone mails a letter to each taxpayer with the amount due. Please wait for that letter to pay your delinquent taxes to ensure you pay the correct amount.

Payments can be made at pay.keystonecollects.com

To obtain a receipt access pay.keystonecollects.com online and enter your invoice number. Receipts are available immediately after payment clears your bank.
